MAGDALENE:

But when the morning was come, Jesus stood on the shore, but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus. Then he saith unto them, Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No. And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find.

MAGDALENE:

They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it in, because of the multitude of fishes. And with this, John knew him and saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Peter heard that it was the Lord, he did cast himself into the sea to swim ashore.

JOHN:
And when the disciples were come to land,
Jesus saith unto them, Come and dine.
And when they had dined, Jesus saith to Peter,
Simon, son of Jonas, lovest
thou me more than these?

PETER:
Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?
Nay, in all these things we are more thand conquerors through him that loved us.
